Sir,

I have the honour to state that during the car festival of Sri Sangameswara devaru at Kudli in Shimoga Taluk which is held in the Hindu month "Chaitra" every year, a cattle show is also being held; the jatra lasts for about a fortnight. The income from the cattle show and the mohatarfa collections at the jatra which is about Rs 1000/- on an average was credited to the Taluk Board Shimoga before its abolition. Since last year it is being credited to the District Board The expenditure incurred for sanitary and other arrangements at the jatra time is about Rs 300/-, a year.

2. At present Kudli village is not in proper sanitary condition. With a view to concert measures for the improvement of the village, the citizens of Kudli convened a meeting on 31st March 1927 and drafted important items of works to be attended to. Some of the measures proposed are:- (1) Improvements of roads and drains (2) reconstructing steps to the river and (3) sanitary and other arrangements during the jatra. As regards ways and means for working out the schemes it was recommended that all the jatra collections should be ceded to

Proceedings of a meeting of the leading residents of Kudli and its Nagara hamlets held at Kudli on 31-3-1927

Mr. D. Subba Rau proposed that Mr. S.N. Sri Narasimha Sastry the Administrator of the Sringeri Kudli mutt be elected to take the chair

Mr Devaraya seconded all the other members agreed.

Mr. S.N Sri Narasimha Sastry then took the chair.

2. Mr. D. Subba Rau explained the object of the meeting to be to consider measures to improve Kudli village by - (1) metalling the existing main road leading from the village boundary to the Sangameswara Temple, (2) constructing drains on both sides, - (2) removing and re-setting the steps leading to the rivers in the several places which are used by the devotees assembling in large numbers occasionally throughout the year & especially during the Sangameswara Jatra, - (3) improving the sanitary condition of the village, - (4) constructing a decent temple over Sri Sangameswara Devaru (5) Setting apart a suitable place for holding the Jatra & the cattle fair connected with it in the limits of the village of Kudli, - (6) erecting temporary stalls to be let out to such of the shopkeepers coming for the Jatra as are being put to heavy loss owing to early monsoon rains - (7) building mantapams or resting places for travellers - (8) regulating the performance religious services in the temple agreeable to ancient usage - (9) providing medical help to persons that assemble during the jatra & on other occasions, - and (10) by arranging to hold an Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition every year in the jatra season for the benefit of the people of different Districts that assemble during the jatra

3. This was followed by the speech of Messrs Subramanyam Venkataramanavadhani as well as others, - bringing to notice how, for want of proper organisation for the purposes, the village and its surroundings are being damaged every year by thousands of people & cattle that assemble for the jatra

4. The Chairman then explained that these are duties expected to be done by the Village Panchayet, which is likely to come into existence in accordance with the Village Panchayet Regulation, which has recently been passed into law by the benign Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

5. The following resolution was then passed, - the proposer being Mr Venkataramanavadhani and the Seconder, Mr K. Subbarao: -

1) That this meeting places on - record its high sense of gratitude towards the Government for their having introduced in the State the Village Panchayet System for the improvement of rural parts throughout the State

ii) The ways and means for achieving the objects of the meeting were then taken up and the following resolution was passed, - the proposer being Sri Venkachari Bhaskarappa & the seconder Sri Subrahmanyam.

That the President of the District Board be requested to kindly place at the disposal of the Village Panchayat of Kudli all the jama collections of Sri Sankameswaraswami to be utilised for the purposes mentioned in para 1

iii) Finally the Chairman of the meeting was authorised to submit a copy of these resolutions to the President of the District Board for favourable consideration and for taking needful action

The meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.
